It is strictly forbidden to install any antenna on or against the property. It's forbidden to install a telephone wire, a cable system or any other system that requires piercing the walls of the building without the written permission of the owner. In the event of failure of such systems, the tenant cannot perform any repairs without receiving the approval of the owner. A tenant who fails to obtain such approval shall assume all costs associated with the repairs.

6. Insurance The tenant agrees to always have proper liability insurance and will provide the owner with proof of the insurance policy at each renewal.

7. Smoke Alarms The tenant is required to replace the batteries of the smoke alarms in the apartment periodically and ensure that they remain functional. If at the time of the annual inspection a battery is missing, the tenant will be charged $10 for its replacement or $25 if the alarm is disconnected or missing.

8. Proper Use of Premises The tenant is required to make use of the premises in a prudent and diligent manner, including maintaining the dwelling in a good and clean condition and performing minor maintenance repairs including carpet cleaning at their own cost if applicable. The tenant is required to pay for the costs related to damage they caused to the leased property including appliances (i.e., refrigerators and stoves) if applicable.

9. Electricity Bills & Heating The tenant agrees to always maintain a minimum heating of 18°C. If heating is the responsibility of the owner, the tenant agrees not to overheat (maximum 24°C) the dwelling and to maintain hermeticity. If the tenant is responsible for electricity bills according to his lease, he is required to pay the bills until the end of his lease. The tenant also accepts to promptly confirm his responsibility with the energy supplier.

10. Rent Payment The rent is payable in full on the first day of every month. CASH NOT ACCEPTED as specified in the lease.

11. Locks and Keys The owner is authorized to keep a key of the apartment to be able to enter in case of emergency. In case of a change of lock the tenant must provide the owner with a copy of the key. Otherwise, the tenant will be charged the full cost of any damages made to the door if the owner has to enter in case of emergency. The owner reserves the right to charge a minimal fee for a new copy of keys caused by tenant's loss.

If the tenant did not provide a key to the management and are locked out, they are responsible to contact and pay for a locksmith to regain access to the apartment.

12. Extermination In case of any bedbugs, cockroaches or other insects, where the owner's experts find that the problem has been caused or persists due to the tenant, the tenant will be charged for the full cost of the extermination for his own as well as all affected neighboring apartments.

13. Behavior The tenants are required to conduct themselves so as not to disturb the normal enjoyment of other tenants. The tenant will be held responsible for damages that may result from the breach of this obligation, even if the violation was done by the tenant's visitors or anyone, they have given access to their dwelling. The owner may, in case of serious damage as a result of such violation, request the termination of the lease and evict the tenant and all occupants of the dwelling.

It is strictly forbidden for a tenant or visitor to make noise that can disturb the occupants of other apartments. This applies 24 hours a day. It is strictly prohibited to use a subwoofer for home theater, computer or for any other electronic device.
